We also want you to be aware that you have choices about how we use this information.

What We Collect

When you apply for membership, we ask for basic information such as your name and address, phone number and email address. This information helps us better serve our members and officers and improve our programs.

Information Sharing

Montana PTA does not sell or rent member information to telemarketers, mailing list brokers, or any other companies.

Montana PTA may also disclose personal information when required to do so by law or when such action is necessary or appropriate to comply with legal process served on Montana PTA, to protect and defend the rights or property of Montana PTA, or to protect the personal safety of users of the www.montanapta.org. We reserve the right to contact the appropriate authorities in our discretion when visitors' activities appear to be illegal or inconsistent with our policies.

Finally, Montana PTA may sometimes share aggregate statistics and non-personal information with the media, government agencies, advertisers, and other third parties. For example, we may publish statistics on the number of members in various units, cities or regions, or the number of visitors to www.montanapta.org. These aggregate statistics do not allow anyone to identify member names or other personal information.

Your Choices

We respect your choices. If you do not wish to share your members' personal information on the National PTA online membership database, simply list their name and then list generic information – such as your school's address and phone number. Or you can contact us as specified below.
